The 24/7 Trip: General Information — June 21-25, 2027

For students who have completed seventh grade and are growing believers who desire to serve others.

24/7 Trip is a week-long local mission trip that shows students that loving others means serving others. Through serving at CBC, helping at the Community Care Center, running Backyard Bible Clubs, and serving local churches and parachurch organizations, each student should see that loving others requires hard work and is rewarding.
