Awana Clubs Important Information

- Awana Clubbers may be checked in beginning at 6:45 p.m. in the CBC Kids Lobby.
- Awana Clubbers will NOT be permitted in the MPR on Wednesday evenings, as Student Body meets there.
- Awana Clubbers should be picked up by a parent/guardian at the end of the evening in the Chapel, beginning at 8:35.

Awana Awards

Clubbers can earn Awana Awards by completing lessons in their books. To earn credit for a lesson, the following sections must be completed:

- Start Here (complete at home)
- Explore (complete at club or at home if absent)
- Memorize (work on at home to say the next week)

Sticker awards are earned upon completion of every four sections. If all 32 sections are completed by the end of the year, an end-of-year award is earned as well. Review sections 2.8, 3.8, and 4.8 are optional and, if completed, will earn a reward.

Junior Camp Scholarship Award

Each Clubber can earn a Junior Camp Scholarship Award to be applied to the year of camp immediately following the Awana year. The guidelines for earning the Award are as follows:

Sections Completed	Amount Earned
15-18	$15.00
19-22	$25.00
23-26	$35.00

Awana Bucks

Clubbers can earn Awana Bucks, which they use to purchase items for missions from the Awana Store on club nights. They will be able to shop once a month according to the color team they are on.

Awana Bucks can be earned in the following ways:

- 1 Buck for a parent's initials (verifies section completion)
- 1 Buck for completion of Start Here/Explore
- 2 Bucks for Memorize Verse
- 1 Buck for Review Verse
- 1 Buck for participating in theme nights
- 1 Buck for showing Christ-like character

Ultimate Adventure clubbers are responsible to keep their bucks. There is an envelope at the back of the book for this purpose. Clubbers may spend all their bucks each time it is their turn to shop, or they may save their bucks to spend later.
