What is My Student Learning?

The last month of the school year, we are changing up the regular flow of Wednesday nights. Instead of me teaching directly after our time of worship, each small group is getting to spend the night doing a Bible Studies. The purpose of this is to allow small groups to spend the majority of the night studying God's Word, based on the specific needs of their group. This has been encouraging to see the teens step up and lead a week of their small group Bible Studies as well!

Note from Will

The end of April and the month of May are exciting and busy months for me! As I'm writing this, David and I are preparing to go down to Texas for four days for the Watermark Church Leadership Conference. What a blessing it is to work at a church that is intentional about developing me into a ministry leader. Also, in two weeks, Anna and I will be getting married. I am so blessed to have her in my life and cannot wait for May 16 when I get to call her my wife!

What is My Student Learning?

If you did not receive or see a previous parent email, TNT is going through our annual Catechism Month series. This series focuses in on five key questions of the Christian faith. The hope is for them to be able to remember the answer to these five key questions, so that later in life they will know by heart, “How and Why did God create us?”, “What is sin?”, “How can we be saved?”, “What is faith in Jesus Christ?”, and “Where is Jesus Christ now?”. TNT Sunday Mornings are also going over these questions, to further discuss and prepare for our lessons on Wednesday nights.

Note from David

This will be my last full month as a parent of only one child. Lord willing, we will welcome Elowyn into the world around the middle of June. Please be praying for me and my growing family! Thank you parents for always being a source of encouragement and support to me as a young leader and pastor, that truly makes the world of difference for me and my wife, Lauren.
