Read God's Word Aloud

Psalm 90:12 (ESV)

So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.

Discuss God's Word and God's World

Important: The goal is to use this Guide to spark sanctifying conversation and opportunities for intercessory prayer, not to "get through" every question like a checklist. Feel free to linger on the questions that best facilitate that for your group.*

Start here: Take a few moments to share and reflect together on what stood out to you from this week's Bible passage and the sermon.

- What does it mean to "number our days?" What about it is so difficult that it's an imperative in Scripture?
- What is one intentional habit or boundary you can put in place this week to steward your time well and grow in wisdom?
- How does knowing we will live forever with God influence your time on earth?
- What are some of your deepest regrets in life related to time?
- Though our lives are short and likely to be marked with difficulties and failures, how can our union with Christ encourage us with hope that can endure any disappointment?

Made in Time | Sunday, October 25, 2026

- If Moses's unfinished work ended with him standing beside Jesus, what might God do with yours?

Finish here: Spend time discussing ways that you can encourage and remind one another of the truths from God's word throughout this next week. Pray for one another using the prayer guidance provided below.

Sanctificational Prayer Guidance

Eternal God, our dwelling place in every generation, we confess that we live as though our days were endless and our sins were hidden from Your sight.

Teach us to number our days, not to fear the count, but to fear You, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Return to us, Lord. Satisfy us early with Your steadfast love, that our few days may be glad ones. Where we have faltered, let not our failures be the last word, for Christ has borne the wrath we deserved.

Family Memory Verse of the Month for October

If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.

John 8:31b-32 (ESV)
