Discussion Questions:

1. In the first sermon of this mini-series on identity, Pastor Cliff stated that our desires are not reliable sources of knowledge about our true identity. But feelings/desires are very powerful and persistent – so why can't we depend on them to tell us who we are?
2. Why does human identity have both individual and community components?
3. What is my true identity as a follower of Jesus? (I am a trusting, obedient son or daughter of the Most High God.) Discuss each of the key words in that identity statement.
