Small Group Guide Week of Oct 25, 2026

This Is How We Live | GO

Key Takeaways

- Jesus has delegated His authority to His followers for the purpose of making disciples of all nations.
- Going does not require being a professional evangelist. Every believer is equipped by God's grace to reach one person.
- Readiness involves praying for specific people, being prepared to answer questions about your faith, and looking for opportunities with wisdom and intentionality.
- Our words to those outside the faith should be filled with grace and seasoned with salt — preserving, flavourful, and life-giving.
- The heart of what we share is the gospel itself: Christ died for our sins, was buried, and rose again on the third day.
- The Holy Spirit provides the supernatural power needed to be a witness. Our testimony of personal experience is one of the most effective tools we have.

Discussion Questions

1. In Matthew 28:18-20, Jesus connects His authority directly to the command to go. How does knowing that you carry delegated authority from Jesus change the way you think about sharing your faith?
2. The sermon emphasizes that you do not have to bring someone to the finish line in a single conversation -- how does releasing that pressure change your willingness to engage with someone who does not yet know Christ?
3. Acts 1:8 connects the power of the Holy Spirit to being a witness. How have you experienced the Holy Spirit enabling you to say or do something in a moment that you could not have done on your own?

Practical Applications

- Ready — Identify one person in your life who needs to experience Christ's love. Begin praying for them specifically and consistently this week. Do not stop praying even if you see no immediate response.
- Set — Think intentionally about how you might take a step toward that person. A phone call, a coffee meeting, a visit, or a simple conversation.
- Go — Take one concrete action toward the person you have been praying for. It does not need to be a full gospel presentation. Trust God with the outcome.

Prayer Focus

- That God would soften the hearts of those in your lives who do not yet know Him.
- For courage and wisdom to take a step toward someone this week.
- That your words, when you speak, would be filled with grace and truth.
- That God would make clear to each person who He is calling them to reach.

Acts 1:8 - But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”
