Job Description for the Associate Director of Student Ministries

Announcement:

Camarillo United Methodist Church seeks a dynamic and collaborative Associate Director of Student Ministries with a vision and skill set for continuing and strengthening its well-established, high-quality youth ministry. The successful candidate will be responsible for overseeing the year-round programs for the students in Middle School and High School, as well as work collaboratively with the Associate Director of Children's Ministry and the Director of Intergenerational Ministries.

Context & Background:

The United Methodist Church of Camarillo is a progressive Christian faith community rooted in dynamic worship and vital service. The Reconciling Congregation gather about 200 people across a wide spectrum of diversity for Sunday worship and myriads of year-round programs.

Ministries to and for youth, students and families, including education, music, fellowship and service are a critical aspect of congregational life. These are integrated with Children's and Student Ministry so that they grow in faith and discipleship to become full members of the congregation.

All staff contribute to, and participate in, these multi-level programs. Each staff member works collaboratively with fellow staff and volunteers under the supervision of the Senior Pastor and appropriate sub-groups of the congregation.

Primary Responsibility:

In consultation and collaboration with the Senior Pastor, Director of Student Ministries other staff, relevant elected leaders and volunteer groups, the Associate Director of Student Ministries organizes and oversees the development of Christian discipleship and programs for youth and families; gives leadership to the Sunday morning experience for the students of the congregation; and collaborates with/assists the Director of Student Ministries and Director of Intergenerational Ministries for youth and family programs throughout the year.

Key Duties- Along with Director of Children's Ministries:

1. Plan, organize and oversee year-round Christian education for CUMC Students (6th grade and above)
2. Recruit, train, motivate, and maintain a team of volunteers for CUMC student Sunday School, Sunday student Group and other Student events.
3. Take the lead in teaching a student's Sunday School class on Sunday mornings and leading a Student Group on Sunday afternoons.
4. Create and deliver Children's message for Sunday morning worship service on a monthly basis.
5. Review and recommend curriculum to the Senior Pastor for Sunday School and other youth programs.
6. Assist the Director of Intergenerational Ministries in organizing service projects for the youth, including SSP and other community service activities.

7. Assist the Director of Intergenerational Ministries in organizing fundraising event for Student Ministries.
8. Assist the Director of Intergeneration Ministries in planning, organizing, and leading the annual Youth Sunday Worship Service.
9. Under the direction of the Director of Intergenerational Ministries and in cooperation with the Associate Director of Children's Ministries, design and implement special programs (e.g. Fall Festival, All Church Events, and Special Sunday Services, etc.)

Secondary Responsibilities:

1. On behalf of the Student Ministries, consult on request with the appropriate congregational groups (e.g., Children's Ministries, Music Ministries, Worship Committee, Church Council, etc.)
2. Coordinate youth participation in worship when applicable.
3. Administer information and record-keeping/reporting such as attendance, ordering materials and supplies, budgets for Student Ministries, etc.
