Exodus 15:1-21
The First Song of Praise to the Warrior Lord
October 18, 2026
Pastor Brandon D. Myers

Sing praise to the worthy Warrior Lord now and forever!

Sing praise to the warrior Lord:

1. because He needs the aid of no one.

2. because He is terrifyingly powerful.

3. because He utterly ruins His enemies.

4. because He makes nations tremble.

5. because He leads His redeemed into His presence.

There is no one like You among the gods, O Lord,
Nor are there any works like Yours (Psalm 86:8-10)

Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God. Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father.
(Colossians 3:16-17; for other examples see Matthew 26:30; Eph. 5:19; Phil. 2:5-11; 1 Timothy 3:17)

Do not let your heart be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many dwelling places; if it were not so, I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also. (John 14:1-3)

"Father, I desire that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I am, so that they may see My glory which You have given Me, for You loved Me before the foundation of the world. (John 17:24)

And they [*]sang the song of Moses, the bond-servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are Your works, O Lord God, the Almighty; Righteous and true are Your ways, King of the nations! 4"Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy; For all the nations will come and worship before You, For Your righteous acts have been revealed (Revelation 15:3-4)

"I care not who writes a nation's laws if I may write its songs."
-Andrew Fletcher (1655-1716), Scottish patriot and politician

"What we sing becomes the grammar of what we believe."
-Keith Getty, Evangelical Christian songwriter, cowrote In Christ Alone

"It is God's intent that from the day of Moses, downward, even to the hour when flames of fire shall lick up the works of men and the heavens, themselves, shall be dissolved with fervent heat, that this shall be the song of the chosen people everywhere, "Sing unto the Lord, for He has triumphed gloriously." -Charles Haddon Spurgeon

"The Song of the Sea is the first recorded psalm or hymn of the Hebrew nation. It sings praises to God because of his redemptive work of bringing Israel out of the land of death and darkness into freedom. It is a symphony of adoration!" -John D. Currid

"When the mercy was fresh, and they were much affected with it, then they sang this song. Note, when we have received special mercy from God, we ought to be quick and speedy in our returns of praise to him, before time and the deceitfulness of our own hearts efface the good impressions that have been made." -Matthew Henry

"Dare we think that the God who divided the Red Sea is powerless to intervene in our lives, that he is unable to care for us? Do we think that he is somehow shackled?"-John D. Currid
