

Financial Assistance Application

2026-2027 School Year

Financial assistance is available to the families of full-time students who demonstrate financial need. To maintain eligibility, students should be in good standing and deemed to be contributing positively to the school community.

Please complete and return this application to the school office together with your most recent income tax Notice(s) of Assessment from Canada Revenue Agency. You will be notified of the amount of financial assistance once your application has been reviewed.

Financial information you provide will be kept in strictest confidence at the Steinbach Christian School Finance Office. One year following calculation of the financial assistance award, tax documents included with the application will be destroyed.
