Merinn Jacobs has been teaching and performing in the Tampa Bay area for over a decade. A graduate of the University of South Florida School of Music, her teachers include Dr. Carolyn Stuart, and Mrs. Yan Jiang Lu. Merinn joined the Tampa Bay Symphony in the Fall of 2025. When she's not playing or teaching violin, Merinn loves to take long walks with her two silver labradors.

Julie Tollen has held the Jack Heller Chair as Principal 2nd Violin for the Tampa Bay Symphony since 2019 and joined the group in 2013. She's played the violin since childhood, her teacher being Jerry of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Julie currently plays with the St. Pete Opera Company and several chamber groups in and around Tampa Bay and Sarasota. When not fiddling around, among other things, Julie spends her time running operations for her Aikido Martial Arts dojo in Tampa along with her husband Don and their super cat, Conan.

Lauren Collier is an experienced performer and music educator who has taught students from Pre-K through college, as well as adults and retirees. She holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Music from the University of Virginia. Lauren currently serves as a strings consultant for Pinellas County Schools, coaches viola at Plant High School in Hillsborough County, and runs a private studio for piano, violin, and viola. She is Principal Viola of the Tampa Bay Symphony and performs throughout the Tampa Bay area at churches, weddings, and with the St. Pete Opera.

Hernan Alvarez Rodriguez serves as the principal cellist of the Tampa Bay Symphony and performs with the St. Pete Opera. His extensive orchestral career in the United States includes performances with prestigious ensembles such as The Florida Orchestra and the Miami Symphony Orchestra. Balancing performance with a passion for education, he teaches cello at the Tampa Bay Music Academy. Beyond the classical stage, he actively collaborates on diverse musical projects, including The POP Orchestra (led by Grammy-winning producer Carlitos Lopez) and singer-songwriter Simon Jano.
