

The Lord is Risen! He is Risen indeed!

What a beautiful Holy Week we had this year! The ceremonies couldn't have run more smoothly, the church (and Hall) were bursting at the seams and the Church looked beautiful.

The biggest blessing of all, of course, were our Catechumens – now the newest members of the Lord's Body, the Church.

We all took Lent very seriously and I can see across the Parish how people have grown in their understanding, their dedication and commitment and in their love for God.

It goes without saying, that if we live a good and Holy Lent, that we can be sure of a good and Holy Triduum.

Thank you for your faithfulness! Thank you for your presence and all your efforts.

In a particular way thank you to Deacon Kim, the Altar Servers, the Readers and flower arrangers, to Jeanneth and Luke for the music and to Martin and John on the projector.

The Parish is now a 'well-oiled machine', and we thank God for all His blessings, but there is still more to be done.... We have a Gospel to proclaim and a message to bring to all those around us: The Lord is Risen Alleluia! Alleluia! He is Risen indeed, Alleluia! Alleluia!

Family learning from the Catechism:

The word 'Easter' is only used in English speaking Countries. Paschaltide is what the church throughout the world calls Easter. 'Paschal' means Passover, referring to the Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus:

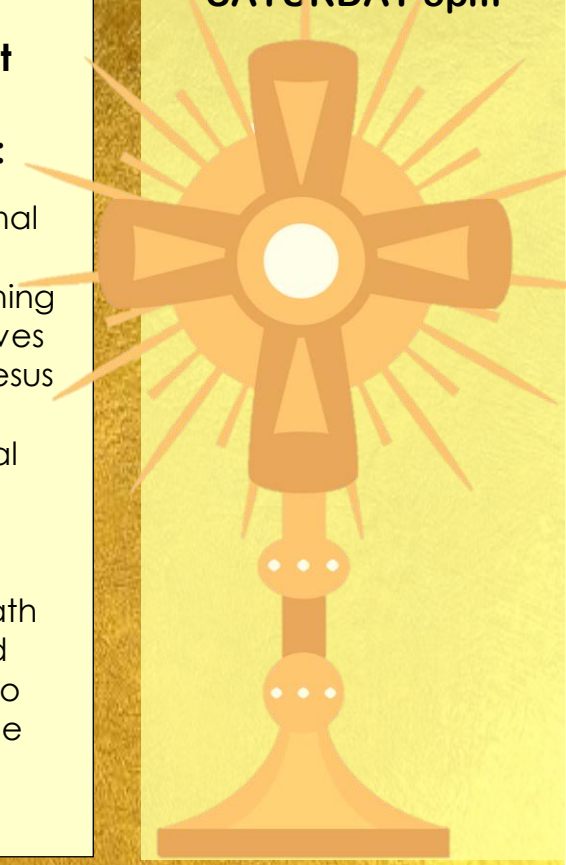

1085 In the liturgy of the Church, it is principally his own Paschal mystery that Christ signifies and makes present. During his earthly life Jesus announced his Paschal mystery by his teaching and anticipated it by his actions. When his Hour comes, he lives out the unique event of history which does not pass away: Jesus dies, is buried, rises from the dead, and is seated at the right hand of the Father "once for all."⁸ His Paschal mystery is a real event that occurred in our history, but it is unique: all other historical events happen once, and then they pass away, swallowed up in the past. The Paschal mystery of Christ, by contrast, cannot remain only in the past, because by his death he destroyed death, and all that Christ is - all that he did and suffered for all men - participates in the divine eternity, and so transcends all times while being made present in them all. The event of the Cross and Resurrection abides and draws everything toward life.

Times when we can adore the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament:

TUESDAY 6pm

FRIDAY 11am

SATURDAY 5pm

The church is open every day from 9am – 7pm for private prayer

How long have you spent in prayer this week?

Our Easter Monday Family Day was another huge success this year. We welcomed many families who joined us for an Easter Bonnet Workshop, Bonnet Competition and Easter Hug Hunt. We finished with some delicious food - Thank you to all those who helped on the day!
