ADULT EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

2025 - 2026

All classes are Sundays at 9AM in Room 222 & on Zoom

Aug. 17 - 24: “The Last Lecture Series”

WPC member Doug Haddix (journalism) will be pretending this is the last lecture he'll ever give. What will he say? Paul Beck (political science) will talk with us about the ever- changing political landscape.

Sept. 7 – Oct. 12: “Creed”

Bestselling author Pastor Adam Hamilton helps us explore what Christians believe, why we believe it and why it matters. A 6-week video series looks at the history and relevance of the Nicene Creed (1700 years old this year!) and the Apostles' Creed.

Oct. 19 – Nov. 16: “The Good Life: Lessons from the world's longest scientific study of happiness”

What makes a life fulfilling and meaningful? The stronger our relationships, the more likely we are to live happy, satisfying, and healthier lives. The Good Life helps us strengthen the relationships we already have and build new ones.

Nov. 23 - Dec. 21: “Revelation for the Rest of Us”

The last book of the Bible frightens many with its imagery and apocalyptic tone. Is this really how we were intended to read John's Revelation? Learn to see the Book of Revelation in a fresh and hopeful new way, discerning what it teaches about “walking in the way of the Lamb” today.

Jan. 4: “The Bible in One Hand, the Newspaper in the Other”

Discussion comes to life with lessons taken from this week's headlines. Join us as we talk about what's happening and what our faith has to say about it.

Jan. 11 - Feb. 8: “The Anxious Generation”

NYT Bestselling author Jonathan Haidt investigates why children need play and independent exploration to mature into thriving adults. “Play-based childhood” began to decline in the '80s and was finally wiped out by the “phone-based childhood” of the early 2010s. Learn what parents, teachers and churches can do to protect children and us from the psychological damage of a phone-based life.

Feb. 15: “How to Know a Person: The art of seeing others and being deeply seen”

We'll review and put into practice what David Brooks teaches about how to be a better listener and how to have conversations that “illuminate” the gift of a child of God, building deeper relationships in the process.

Feb. 22 – April 12: “Meeting Jesus at the Table: A Lenten Study”

The Gospels are full of stories of Jesus sharing meals with disciples, friends, even tax collectors and Pharisees. Jesus imparts wisdom as he shares the wine and grants forgiveness as he distributes the fish. Each week we will reflect individually and together on that wisdom and forgiveness.

April 19 - May 17: “Everything Happens for a Reason and Other Lies I Have Loved”

Seminary professor Kate Bowler was diagnosed with stage IV colon cancer. Frank and funny, dark and wise, she tells her story, offering up her hard-won observations on dying and the ways it has taught her to live.
