Connection

Annie Barner

Coordinator for
Children's Ministries

In these post-Easter, pre-Summer weeks, I often find myself feeling the most excited I do all year because Vacation Bible School is right around the corner! This year our theme is "Snowball Mountain Challenge" with our focus being on how we can find our strength in God. While a "snow" theme may seem confusing for Summer time, it's really the Bible stories and lessons that the kids will learn that is the most important part of VBS. The kids will meet Bible characters, Joseph, Queen Esther, the widow, Peter, John and of course, Jesus. Through these character's stories, the kids will explore ways they can share their gifts, how they can be brave, how they can give their all, how they can pray, and how they can hope – all lessons that remind us that God gives us strength when we need it most. Since VBS is the largest outreach event WPC does for children and families in our community, I'd like to ask you to consider how you will support this amazing ministry this year. With your money you can donate towards a scholarship to help a family attend without financial burden, or you can purchase supplies from our Wishlist on Amazon. With your time, you can volunteer a few days, or the whole week to be a helper with the kids. In whichever way you choose to support VBS, I want to assure you that your effort is greatly appreciated. And, who knows, you may even see a little snow in Ohio this June!

Vacation Bible School
