PROTECT OUR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS

Why is Amendment 6 Bad for Missouri?

Amendment 6 locks petition laws and amendments into the Constitution and makes it impossible for the people we elect to change, improve, or rescind any citizen-initiated laws and amendments.

What Will Amendment 6 Enshrine Into Our Constitution?

- Petition laws and amendments passed after January 1, 2010 are locked in place unless 80% of both the House and Senate (an unattainable threshold) refer any revisions back to a vote of the people.
- Prohibits lawmakers from reforming the citizen initiative petitions process, even if citizens now or in the future want updates to the process.
- Gives courts unlimited authority to rewrite ballot summaries for any proposed ballot measure

Based on Judge Daniel R. Green's Ruling (8/19/26), Amendment 6:

- Packs multiple subjects into one Yes/No vote – Unconstitutional
- Handcuffs future voters – No allowance for modifications
- Threatens our Representative Republic rooted in the U.S. and Missouri Constitutions

How Will Amendment 6 Impact Our Rights and Freedoms?

Allows bureaucrats, lobbyist or well-funded interest groups to pass future laws and amendments:

- Prohibiting school choice including homeschooling.
- Instituting red-flag laws and restrictions on gun owners.
- Expanding mail in voting and removing photo ID requirements
- Mandating vaccines and masks to keep a job or go to school
- Implementing job-killing wage hikes and green energy regulations
- Establishing sanctuary cities and cashless bail for illegal aliens
- Levying more government subsidies, bankrupting our state

Once a petition passes, the legislature will not be able to protect us from the unintended consequences of misguided amendments.
